EXPECTS APPOINTMENT.

Reno, Nev., Sept. 18.—It is said William Maxwell of Reno, who for the past four years has been deputy sheriff under Sheriff Ferrel, and served in a similar capacity under Sheriff Hayes, has been chosen warden of the state prison at Carson, to succeed Warden Day, who resigned early this week. Maxwell today tendered his resignation to Sheriff Ferrel to take effect in case he is appointed. The position of prison warden is one of the most important appointive offices of the state. Mr. Maxwell is conceded to be a very capable man.

Die. Park City, Sept. 17.—A sad accident oc-curred last evening on Main street, when Tom Manix, better known as "Speck," in a spirit of fun got on a horse belonging to Shanley and started down Mair street, when the horse became frightened and threw the rider, fracturing his skull. The young man was picked up in an unconscious state and taken into Dr. Bards-ley's office, and later was taken to his home in Empire canyon. The doc-tor has very little hope for the young man's recovery.

The horse belonging to M. J. Daly which was stolen Tuesday evening was found yesterday in Ogden in the possession of Ben Foreman, a resident of this city. Foreman is being held by the Ogden officers awaiting the arrival of Sher-iff Evans. The horse is a very valuable animal and was taken from a hitching post while Mr. Daly was at the the-

PARK COUNCIL SESSION.

Park City, Sept. 18.—Another very short session of the Park City council was held last evening in the recorder's office at the city hall. Mayor Wilson called the council to order and roll call found all of the officers in their places, with the exception of Attorney L. B. Wight, who came in a few moments later.

The minutes of the previous session were read and accepted.

Applications for liquor licenses were presented by D. H. Redden, Frank Lake and Matkovich & Bjetich. The licenses were granted.

The marshal was asked if the work of censes were granted.

The marshal was asked if the work of repairing the roofs on the city buildings was being done and he informed the council that it was.

James Brierly, city scavenger, appeared in person before the council and asked for his $35 increase in wages, and after a good deal of discussion the man's raise in wages was given him to go into effect Oct. 1. Oct. 1.

Nothing further coming up, the council adjourned to meet again on the evening of Thursday, Oct. 1.

RUEF'S FRIEND ARRESTED.

San Francisco, Sept. 18.—John West, an associate of Abraham Ruef, has been arrested on an indictment returned by the grand jury charging him with an attempt to influence veniremen in the case of Ruef, now on trial, on the charge of bribery. West was discharged on furnishing a bond of $10.000. The indictment of West follows that of Attorneys Frank J. Murphy and A. S. Newburgh, who are also accused of attempting to influence prospective jurors in the case of Ruef.
